From Jane Skinner

Vera kindly sent me the Church Times 'Guide to happy recruitment' – a handbook for parishes, it's worth it for the cartoons alone! I hope we do have a process of recruitment which is happy, a positive process in which we all continue to journey and flourish as we discern whom may join the ministry team in the future. It will take a while. This is partly so we become used to life after Madeline and resist the temptation to find someone just like her. We trust God knows who we need, with their own unique mix of gifts, to add to our mix in the Hartland Coast Mission Community. The first and constant thing is for us to pray: for Madeline as she enters her new future, for ourselves as we journey on, for the person of God's calling. Jane

All donations made at Woolser Post Office & Stores will be matched by MXB Devon Operations. Please consider popping in some loose change in the brown boxes by the tills and support our Village Youth Club. Thank you so much everyone.*

Come and See Mission Weekend 2023

*Will you come and join our Come and See weekend of mission supported by Archbishop Justin Welby? It will run from Friday 10 to Sunday 12 November 2023 (Remembrance weekend). Archbishop Justin will be taking part in a number of special evangelistic events across Devon during the weekend. Churches are encouraged to join in by holding their own mission outreach event at the same time. It could be within a parish, across your mission community or one single event for your deanery. It might be a Remembrance cream tea (Come and Remember), quiz night (Come and Quiz), community walk (Come and Walk), cake making workshop (Come and Cook), curry evening (Come and Eat), church open day (Come and Explore), silent disco (Come and Dance), churchyard treasure trail (Come and Seek) - or whatever you would like to do! The aim will be to invite people who do not normally come to church in order to share something of our faith with them.
