HCMC Information Sheets in August

There is a change of plan – they say a change is as good as a rest, and I need a rest! – so I shall probably not be compiling a new sheet each week. I have yet to work out the best way to let you have all the necessary service info, so watch this space... Tricia

Gratitude and Wellbeing Walks – every Wednesday, starting this week

Come and enjoy a leisurely stroll through Hartland's coastal landscape. Take time to observe, appreciate and give thanks for the beauty of nature. Finish off with tea and cake at St. Nectan's Church. Meet in the car park at 2pm.

From Jane Skinner

I am terrible at watching sport! I often try to watch the end and avoid the agony of disappointments and hope between the teams or players as goals are scored, sets won or lost, runs made and batsmen caught out. I watched the last set of the Wimbledon's men's final between Jannik Sinner and Alexander Zverev, some fantastic rallies and what a forehand! Both were appreciative of each other and the crowd. The match between England and Argentina is underway as I write, I don't expect it to be quite so polite given our history but hope it's a good match that all the players can be proud of their performance. St. Paul describes the race of life in which we are aiming to win the crown. We're living for Jesus and in his energy and grace. Over the summer let's grab every opportunity to appreciate each other, encourage and bless. At the end, it's Jesus we want to be proud of our performance. Jane

Please send Tricia (as an attachment) any posters for your church events for circulation and loading on the website. email: hartlandcoastparishes@gmail.com

Afterwards, it would be lovely to see some photos, which I can put up on the website. <https://www.hartlandcoastparishes.org/photo-gallery>

As ever, if you are sending me photos or posters, PLEASE send them as .jpg or .png attachments for me to download, as it takes so much time to unravel them otherwise and this format is suitable for loading directly to the website without my having to play with them! Thank you, Tricia

Teas in Church at St Nectan's Stoke

If you have family or visitors staying between now and mid-September, do let them know that they can find a warm welcome (in a cool space!) with tea, coffee or squash and a selection of lovely, home-made cakes on most weekday afternoons between 2pm and 5pm in the magnificent parish church of Hartland.

Church pages on the website

<https://www.hartlandcoastparishes.org/visit-us>

Please will you check your page and let me know of (and send me) any amendments or additions you would like. Our Parish Profile does not include a dedicated page for each church, as in the past. Instead, we will point prospective candidates to the website.

From Andrew

Good morning, God. We are here to praise you. The sun praises you as the day goes by. The stars praise you with their twinkle. The rain praises you by refreshing the earth. The trees praise you in seeds to grow more trees. Birds praise you in a chirp. Dogs praise you in a yap. How do we praise you, O God? In how we live and what we say. Praise be to you, O God, from all your many creatures in all our many ways. Amen

Nancy Cocks, from The Blessing of Animals
