From Jane Skinner

It's interesting that the 'Dust & Glory' reflections spend two days thinking about 'Forgetting like God forgets'. How difficult it can be to forget and let go of some things! Perhaps a regret that we have of something we think we should have done differently, an opportunity missed. Perhaps a remembered wrong done to us that still hurts after many years. We pray regularly for God to forgive us as we forgive others. My hope and prayer is that this Lent we can be released and find new freedom. May God guide us in our Lenten journey – it's not too late to start! And for anyone feeling the journey is tough, this is not only Mothering Sunday but also 'Refreshment Sunday' to have a legitimate break so we can complete the second half. Jane.

LENT COURSE / DAILY READINGS. A weekly meeting is being held on Mondays during Lent from 7-8pm on Zoom. Topics will be included at the Wednesday morning Communion service in Hartland.

In person Safeguarding Training. All members of Parochial Church Councils are expected to achieve the Basic Awareness and Foundation level of training. For those who are unable to, or uncomfortable with, doing this online, a course is being offered at Woolserly Chapel on Tuesday 28th March, starting at 9.30am. Each session lasts one hour, so depending on comfort breaks, this should finish at 12.15pm.

If you have never completed training before or are in need of a refresher (required every 3 years) please book your place with your Safeguarding Representative (Pat Alexander, Faith Butler, Hilary Dodge or Dave Watson) or let Tricia in the office know (441142 or 441690 or hartlandcoastparishes@gmail.com). Jane needs to know names as soon as possible so that attendance letters may be prepared.
