THE CHOSEN - Having used this programme as our Lent Course in Woolsery this year we are going to look at the second series beginning on Wednesday September 11th, 7pm in Woolsery Chapel and warmly invite anyone who would like to join us. This will continue on Wednesdays for another 5 weeks. This is a very thought-provoking presentation of Jesus' life, ministry and the times he lived in and I thoroughly recommend it. From Jane Skinner

Feels like autumn has begun as I pick blackberries when out walking. You may respond that it doesn't feel as we've really had summer with limited sun and heat! How good we are at describing the weather and seasons but how little we notice or speak of the works of God and the movement of the Spirit. On Sunday, we begin a period of reading from the brief Epistle of James which is compact but packs a big punch. I was struck again by the verse 'be doers of the word, and not merely hearers who deceive themselves.' This isn't about being busy for God but how God's word is implanted in us and affects us with practical results. Have a read of James and have a think! This week it's chapter 1 verses 17 – end.

What a terrific flower festival at St. Nectan's, Stoke – well done everyone involved! This weekend you can visit Buckland Brewer and enjoy an art exhibition. So much talent around. And please remember to pray for anyone considering applying for Team Vicar, applications in by Friday 6th at 12noon. Jane
