From Jane Skinner

Getting ready to meet with couples getting married over 2025. We hold sessions over Saturday looking at different aspects of life together such as communication and handling conflict. The service itself will be looked at with especial emphasis on the vows to be made, it can be very moving for the couple to read these words out loud. We hope they will be supported by this time and more expectant of God not only blessing their wedding day but being at the centre of their lives together. We use materials from an organisation called Care for the Family, have a look - they produce an impressive range of resources. We could run a similar day for those who have been married for a while who would value taking some time out together to review how their marriage is going - helpful to refresh and rejoice in this relationship. Do let me know if this is something you could find interesting. Please pray for couples getting married and may God enrich the marriages amongst us. Jane

Please send Tricia (as an attachment) any posters for your church events for circulation and loading on the website. email: hartlandcoastparishes@gmail.com

Afterwards, it would be lovely to see some photos, which I can put up on the website.

As ever, if you are sending me photos, PLEASE send them as .jpg or .pdf attachments for me to download, as it takes so much time to unravel them otherwise. Thank you, Tricia
