From Jane Skinner

What an amazing weekend we have shared! I'm passing on a message of thanks from the Archdeacons of Barnstaple and Exeter: 'We would like to take this opportunity to thank you so much for the incredible hard work over this past weekend, in hosting all the various services and events across our Archdeaconries to celebrate the King's Coronation. We are so aware of the many different civic services, Big Help Out activities and special events that have taken place in each of your parishes and are so grateful for the investment of your time and energy. Thank you for making a special effort to arrange beautiful decorations and refreshments and for going that 'extra mile'. What an incredible time was had by so many and whatever part you played, it has shown what can be done when we work together as a team and as a Diocese.'

I should also pass on the news that Bishop Robert has announced his retirement on 30th September as the 70th Bishop of Exeter. We give thanks to God for his ministry amongst us.

Jane

Don't miss the opportunity on Sunday to have a walk around Hole Farm to admire the gardens and bluebells. Entry £5 for NGS Nursing Charities. Refreshments are being provided by Woolsery Churches Together in aid of funds.
