From Jane Skinner

How is your Lenten journey going? Attending the annual ceremony for Glenart Castle up on the coastal footpath and looking over a choppy channel stirred up with wind and rain, I'm reminded how quickly life can change. The hospital ship was torpedoed and sank, according to some reports at the time, in between 6 and 8 minutes with few managing to escape. Of the many people who came to honour the 26th February, several had come from the Royal Centre for Defence Medicine at the Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Birmingham. Young medics using their skills to support our forces at home and abroad just as the matron and medics on the Glenart Castle had been seeking to do in 1918. May we use our skills and talents to help and support others. Perhaps this is part of your Lenten pursuit this year. Plenty of resources online available to receive daily and inspire. Know God's blessing as you journey onwards. Jane

Please send Tricia (as an attachment) any posters for your church events for circulation and loading on the website. email: hartlandcoastparishes@gmail.com

Afterwards, it would be lovely to see some photos, which I can put up on the website. <https://www.hartlandcoastparishes.org/photo-gallery>

As ever, if you are sending me photos, PLEASE send them as .jpg or .png attachments for me to download, as it takes so much time to unravel them otherwise and this format is suitable for loading directly to the website without my having to play with them! Thank you, Tricia

The next Bible study will be held on 11th March at 1 Chubbycroft. 7pm

I will give you rest, come.

The World Day of Prayer Service will be held in the Church Rooms Hartland on Friday March 6th at 2pm. The material for this year's service has been prepared by the women of Nigeria, who bring us a powerful invitation drawn from Matthew 11:28-30. At a time when people worldwide are carrying heavy burdens, our Nigerian sisters offer profound insights into finding rest in God.

ALL WELCOME

Hopefully you will have seen the posters and flyers for the new initiative at Bucks Mills - St. Anne's invites you to an informal worship event at Bucks Village Hall on Sunday, starting at 11am. You may expect bacon butties and cake! The next one is scheduled for April 26th.
