Andrew is taking a few weeks leave, so I shall do as last year and find a suitable replacement for his weekly Reflection which may be read in place of a sermon where needed. Tricia

From Jane Hayes

As I write this (Weds) we celebrated St Matthias, the apostle who took the place of Judas as one of the twelve apostles. I was asked, do we hear anything about him after he became one of the group? The answer is 'no, not really'. We assume he travelled around like the others and was a founder of the early church. Does it matter? No!

There are many, many people who do numerous good things and we don't hear much, if anything about them. Today's society always picks up the negative rather than the positive. So, my thought for this week – let's think about all those people we know in our churches and in the wider community who do so much for others, and, for a change, celebrate all that is good in this world that we have been given. In the words of a lovely song often sung in school assemblies: 'Count your blessings, name them one by one. Count your blessings, see what God has done.' Jane

Please send Tricia (as an attachment) any posters for your church events for circulation and loading on the website. email: hartlandcoastparishes@gmail.com

Afterwards, it would be lovely to see some photos, which I can put up on the website.

As ever, if you are sending me photos, PLEASE send them as .jpg or .pdf attachments for me to download, as it takes so much time to unravel them otherwise. Thank you, Tricia

As part of the process to better understand the church across our Mission Community we are thinking about the following two questions. We would welcome thoughts from as many people living within the Mission Community as possible, both in our church congregations and the wider community.

- “How do you think the church community serves the wider Community?”
- “How would you like to see this church community serve the wider community?”

You should find slips in the church and meeting places (if not, please ask a churchwarden) We would be grateful if you would complete a slip and put in the box or envelope provided, or email your responses to janehayes59@yahoo.co.uk
